Kirby Campbell Music Tuition

Child Safe Reporting Policy

ntroduction Describe the intent of the olicy and who it is for	 To help keep children safe, we must create, maintain and improve our child safe reporting practices to ensure they remain effective. Everyone in our organisation must: know what to report, who to report it to and how to report it report any concerns about the safety or welfare of a child or young person immediately feel confident that concerns and allegations will be dealt with honestly and fairly feel confident in reporting unacceptable behaviour around children and young people ensure the safety and wellbeing of the child is paramount when an allegation is made.
Definitions of harm and buse (what to report)	Psychological abuse Includes bullying, threatening and abusive language, intimidation, shaming and name calling, ignoring and isolating a child, and exposure to domestic and family violence. Physical abuse Includes physical punishment such as pushing, shoving, punching, slapping and kicking, resulting in injury, burns, choking or bruising. Sexual abuse Includes the sexual touching of a child, grooming, and production, distribution or possession of child abuse material (often known as photography). Grooming The process where a person manipulates a child or group of children, and sometimes those looking after them, including parents, carers, teachers and leaders. They do this to establish a position of trust so they can then later sexually abuse the child. Misconduct Inappropriate behaviour that may not be as severe as abuse, although could indicate that abuse is occurring and would often be in breach of an organisation's Child Safe Code of Conduct*, including showing a child something inappropriate on a phone, having inappropriate conversations with a child or an adult sitting with a child on their lap. Lack of appropriate care Includes not providing adequate and proper supervision, nourishment, clothing, shelter, education or medical care. Note: As a relevant entity, our organisation must also report reportable conduct.

Title	Content
Types of complaints (what to report) List what should be reported	 All complaints should be reported. This includes: criminal conduct risk of significant harm (ROSH) disclosures of abuse unacceptable behaviour around children and young people that breaches our Child Safe Code of Conduct suspicion of harm or abuse to a child or young person reportable conduct.
Making a complaint (who can report) Identify who can make a complaint	Everyone in our organisation has the right to make a genuine complaint and won't be punished if they do. This includes children and young people, staff members and volunteers. Reporting abuse is mandatory and encouraged – it is never obstructed or prevented.
Reporting obligations (who to report to) Identify all reporting obligations	Reporting criminal conduct Contact NSW Police on 131 444 for anything you consider could be a criminal offence. This includes sexual assault, physical assault, grooming offences, and producing, disseminating or possessing child abuse material.
	Note: It is a criminal offence for adults not to report to police if they-know or believe that a child abuse offence has been committed. In addition, people employed in child-related work may be subject to a criminal offence if

Title Content Risk management To ensure the immediate and ongoing safety of the child: strategies (how to establish the welfare and safety of the child and take steps to ensure the child report) is removed from the risk Identify any strategies reassure them and remain calm that need to be put in listen carefully without interrupting place to ensure the don't ask leading questions or any additional questions once you've established immediate and ongoing there is a genuine concern (to not compromise future investigations by NSW safety of the child and Police or DCJ) any other people involved support them, reassuring the child that they have done the right thing, that you believe them and that the abuse is not their fault explain what will happen, including timeframes don't make promises you can't keep don't confront the alleged perpetrator seek guidance if you are unsure about what to do. It is the child safety officer's role to conduct a risk assessment after receiving an allegation, to ensure the safety of all people involved and maintain the integrity of the investigation. Procedural fairness, Any allegation of abuse will be treated in a fair, transparent and timely manner. including privacy and Workers subject to an allegation will be notified when a disciplinary hearing will take confidentiality (how to place and what will occur at the hearing. We follow the obligations defined under the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth), and relevant reportable conduct report) investigations are conducted with the OCG's Reportable Conduct Directorate. Explain the process around procedural Additionally: fairness and how your all information is recorded on our reporting form for complaints and allegations organisation manages all reporting forms for complaints and allegations are stored securely and only privacy and confidentiality accessed by those in the organisation with responsibility for oversight of the investigation information may be exchanged under Chapter 16A of the Child and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, with other agencies who have responsibilities relating to the safety, welfare or wellbeing of children or young people our organisation maintains the privacy of those involved in accordance with our obligations under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 if an incident is found to be substantiated, likely outcomes or responses will be determined by HR or from advice given by relevant authorities (police, DCJ or OCG). Complaint process Once a complaint has been made, use this step-by-step process to make sure it's

(how to report)

Provide a step-by-step rundown of the complaint process

appropriately followed up:

- steps taken to remove child from harm
- incident recorded
- reporting obligations met, if necessary
- investigation conducted, keeping everyone involved up to date with what's happening
- offering ongoing support to the child as needed
- reviewing the incident and updating the organisation's child safe policies, if necessary.

Title	Content
Legislation Include a list of the legislation that applies to the reporting obligations in your organisation to keep children safe	Crimes Act 1900 Child and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 Children's Guardian Act 2019 Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth) Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998
How we publicise our Child Safe Reporting Policy Include a communications plan	 To ensure everyone in our organisation is aware of our Child Safe Reporting Policy and their reporting obligations we: hold information sessions about our child safe policies and how they apply to families, workers and children create and display important information from our Child Safe Reporting Policy that describes what to report, who to report to and how to report, including fact sheets, brochures and posters provide workers with internal and external training opportunities so they understand our processes for complaints and allegations create and promote age- and ability-appropriate programs for children and young people that explain what do if they feel sad, angry or concerned.
Review date Set a date to review and update this policy	This policy will be reviewed annually and after any critical incidents, to ensure continuous improvement of our child safe practices and that we keep up to date with relevant legislation and industry requirements. Children and young people have an opportunity to provide feedback on the policy and complaint handling.